

Volunteers!

8th Annual Arts Buffet Festival

Save the Date: Saturday, March 27, 2010

The Arts Buffet Festival will be held at the Center School gym where young participants may come and try their hand at a wide sampling of creative crafts and projects. Each year brings new and exciting crafts to interest a variety of eager hands as well as some twists on old favorites. There will be a Student Art Fair which will display art work from every student K-5 and the ever popular face painting. And, if you have a budding performer, have them sign up with Mrs. Dyer for a time slot and wow us with their musical talents. This event is sponsored by the Stow Parent Teacher Organization (SPTO) and the Stow Cultural Council (SCC).

The Arts Buffet Festival would not be possible without the involvement of the volunteers who help set up the event, man the event and clean up when it's over. This year is no different, and we're asking for your help. Your time commitment can be as little or as much as you would like, and volunteers often report that they have a great time during the event.

Everyone can help by saving the following recyclable items:

- Paper towel tubes/wrapping paper tubes (please no toilet paper tubes)
- Egg cartons (cardboard, please)
- Small pictures cut out from magazines, such as animals, sports, nature, cartoons, etc.
- Flattened cereal boxes
- Old greeting card fronts (birthday, seasonal celebrations, and thank you cards)
- Clean coffee cans with lids
- Fleece (1/2 yard or more pieces)

There will be collection boxes at both Center and Pompositticut Schools for your recycled items beginning March 1, 2010.

If you have any questions regarding volunteering or the festival, please get in touch with organizers:
